BASEBALL PARK, ST. LOUIS, Aug After the tremendous crowd which saw the Giants take a double-header from the Cardinals Sunday the grand stand and bleachers looked deserted to-day. Only the old stand-bys turned out to see the St. Louisans and Giants again. Then, too, the weather was threatening, and the playing of a game at all was exceedingly doubtful.

It was up to Ames to break his streak of hard luck and win a game this afternoon, and the youngest pitcher in either League was feeling good over his chances and warmed up in great shape.

Third luning. Burke and Shav both fumbled Gilbert's drive, but Gilbert died on Warner's attempted sacrifice. Barciay to Shav. Ames fained. Nichols threw out Bresnahan. NO RUNS.

Burke fell to Ames's curves, and so did Kid Nichols. Farrell got another hit, this time over second. Shannon walked. Beckley ended it, Gilbert to McGann. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning. Browne singled past short and was sacrificed along by McGame. Nichols to Beckley. Mertes filed to Smoot and Dahlen to Burke. A bad ending after a good start. NO RUNS.

Grady filed to Bresnahan. Smoot bunted and went out by way of Warner to McGame. Ames stopped Shay's bounder and had him a mile at first. NO RUNS.

Ames led off with a hit to centre. Bresnahan filed to left and Browne to Burke. McGann did better, singling to centre and putting Ames on third. Mertes fouled to Beckley. It was anotheir good chance sone. NO RUNS. Farrell filed to Browne. Shannon fanned. Beckley was out. Gilbert to McGann. NO RUNS.
